

CHAP. 72.

and doubts have arisen whether the said real estate will descend to the children of said Eliza Hopkins, for want of heritable blood, and praying that an act may pass releasing any right of the state to the said real estate, and the prayer of the petitioner appears to be reasonable—Therefore,

Estate vested.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all right of escheat which belongs to the state of Maryland, and all the right of the state or of any person or persons hereafter claiming through the same by any act of Assembly heretofore made, in and to all that part of a tract of land or lot of ground, called Lot No. eleven in Braddock's square, with the improvements thereon, situate, lying and being in the town of St. Michaels, in Talbot county, and which was conveyed to Terence Doores of Talbot county, by Joseph Hunt of said county, by a deed bearing date the fifteenth day of December, eighteen hundred and twenty one, and in and to all that tract or part of a tract of land called and known by the name of "Three Necks," situate, lying and being in Talbot county, and which was conveyed to the said Terence Doores of Talbot county, by John Tilghman, and Ann his wife, of Queen Anne's County and state of Maryland, by deed bearing date the fourth day of June, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, be and the same is hereby vested in, transferred and released to Elizabeth Dodson Hopkins, Theodor Denny Hopkins, and Esther Maria Hopkins.

---

 CHAPTER 72.

Passed Feb. 6, 1832

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to provide for electing Commissioners for Allegany County, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter twenty-five.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that the act entitled An act to provide for electing commissioners for Allegany county, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter twenty-five, did not make a seal necessary, and it appearing just and proper that the commissioners should have a seal—Therefore,

Seal.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners elected under the act, be authorised and hereby directed to cause to be made and use a corporate seal, and may alter the same at their pleasure, as may be