

CHAP. 75.

said Nicholas D. Warfield, to act in conjunction with the other commissioners named in the act to which this is supplementary, in laying out and opening the road therein mentioned, and that the said Zachariah H. Worthington, shall qualify as commissioner, and after qualification, shall have, and may exercise the powers, and discharge the duties of a commissioner, in the manner directed by the said original act to which this is a supplement.

CHAPTER 75.

Passed Feb. 7, 1832 An act for the relief of the Heirs and Representatives of the late Nicholas Snowden.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the widow and administratrix of the late Nicholas Snowden, of Prince George's county, and such of his heirs at law as are of age, have, by their petition, set forth, that it will be highly advantageous to their interests, and the interests of the estate of said Nicholas, deceased, for the widow and administratrix aforesaid, to be allowed to apply the annual nett proceeds of the real estate of said deceased, for five years to come, to the payment of the debts of said deceased, and they have prayed an act of assembly, authorising the same: And whereas, it appears to this General Assembly, that the prayer of the petitioners is reasonable, and should be granted;—Therefore,

Powers granted.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the administratrix of the said Nicholas Snowden, with the consent of her securities in the administration bond, which assent shall be in writing, and filed in the orphans court of Prince George's county, to take and receive all the rents, issues and profits of the real estate of the said deceased, and to apply the net proceeds thereof, from time, to the payment of the debts of said deceased, for a term not exceeding five years.

Rights reserved.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall in any manner interfere with the rights of any of the creditors of said estate, but any part of said estate shall be, and remain liable therefor, in the same manner as if this act had not been passed.

Responsibilities.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall interfere with, or lessen, or impair the responsibility of the securities of the said administratrix, on her bond as administratrix.
