

CHAP. 131.

therein expressed, in as full and ample a manner as if the said court had or might have had original jurisdiction to have passed the said decree, or had or might have had full and complete power and authority to have passed the same under any circumstances whatever, or under any other state of the pleadings or form of proceeding whatever.

Deeds made void

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the deed or deeds therein directed to be executed, and which may have been or shall hereafter be executed in pursuance of said decree, shall vest in the said Horatio C. Scott, his heirs and assigns forever, a clear and indefeasible estate and title in fee simple to the said house and lot in the said proceedings and decree mentioned, free from all claim whatever of the said defendants or any of them, or any other person or persons claiming the same from them or any of them, by title acquired since the passage of the said decree, provided however, that the said Horatio C. Scott shall in all respects comply with the terms of the said decree, by paying into the said court the sum of money therein directed to be paid, with the interest due thereon, to be paid over to the said infant children of the said Alexander and Caroline Mundell in the manner therein directed.

Title vested

CHAPTER 131.

Passed Mar. 15, 1836 A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to incorporate the Westminster Savings Institution.

Act continued to 1856

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of an act, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty seven, incorporating the Westminster Savings Institution, be and the same is continued in full force to the year eighteen hundred and fifty-six, except the ninth section, which is hereby repealed.

9th sec. repealed