

such inquisition shall be taken by reason of so extending or completing said street through his, her or their lot or lots, shall thereupon proceed to assess and value the damages accordingly, taking into consideration the advantages or disadvantages, if any, and such inquisition and valuation shall be final and conclusive between the parties respectively; Provided, that in all cases, where the damages so ascertained and assessed by said inquisition, shall not exceed the valuation and assessment of damages made by the said commissioners, all the cost and expense of said inquisition shall be borne and paid by the party, at whose instance the said inquisition may be had, and in all other cases the same shall be borne by the petitioners for this act.

CHAP. 153.

Expenses assessed

CHAPTER 153.

An act for the relief of the Crier, Jurymen and Bailiffs of Harford County. Passed Mar. 15, 1836

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the crier, jurymen and bailiffs that may hereafter attend Harford county court, for the despatch of causes removed from Baltimore city court, or any county court, shall be paid for their services on presentation to the commissioners of the county of such county court, or the register or other proper disbursing officer of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, a certificate signed by the clerk of Harford county court, and under the seal of his office, setting forth the number of days which any crier, jurymen or bailiff may have attended said court, and the sum due to him for such attendance, including the mileage now allowed by law, which shall be sufficient authority to the said commissioners or register, or other proper disbursing officer of the corporation of the city of Baltimore, to pay the amount so specified in said certificate, any law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided however, that upon presentation of such certificate to the commissioners of Baltimore county, or to the register or officer aforesaid, as the case may be, the Compensation in cases removed from B. C.