

CHAPTER 186.

CHAP. 186.

Passed Mar 24, 1836

A further supplement to the act, entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make a Turnpike road leading to Cumberland, and for the extension of the charters of the several Banks in this State, and for other purposes, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter seventy-nine.

Preamble

WHEREAS, an article of agreement has been entered into by the President, Managers and Company of the Cumberland Turnpike Road, and the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, by which it has been stipulated and agreed that the said canal company shall have the privilege of using and occupying, for the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, certain portions of the Turnpike Road leading from the west bank of the Conococheague creek to Hancock, and thence to the town of Cumberland, in Allegany county, which road was made and constructed by virtue of the aforesaid act of Assembly and its several supplements; And whereas, it will be necessary to change and alter the present location of said turnpike road, at such points as may be required, for the use of said canal;—Therefore:

Transfer authorized

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the president, managers and company of the Cumberland turnpike road be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to transfer to the Chesapeake and Ohio canal company, such portions of the present bed of said turnpike road as may be found necessary to be used and occupied by the said canal, upon such terms and conditions as the said president and managers of the Cumberland turnpike road, and the Chesapeake and Ohio canal company have heretofore, or may hereafter mutually agree upon; and that the present location of said road may be so altered, and such other ground used and occupied for said road at the points at which said road and canal may come in contact, as may be found necessary, and on such terms as have heretofore or may hereafter be agreed upon by said companies; Provided, that the said alte-
