

CHAP. 203. pointment of three justices, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the same was inserted in the original law.

CHAPTER 203.

Passed Mar. 25, 1836 An act for the relief John P. Robins, and others, citizens of Worcester county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it is presented to this General Assembly, That a certain Valentine Dennis, late of Worcester county, deceased, did by his last will and testament, devise a certain house and lot in the Town of Snow Hill, in said county, to his daughter Sarah Dennis, during her natural life, and after her decease to her two children, their heirs and assigns forever, and that a certain John P Robins has purchased the life interest of the said Sarah Dennis, and the residuary right of one of her said children, to wit: Sarah, she being of age, but owing to the minority of the other child of the said Sarah Dennis, he is unable to procure her interest in said property; And whereas, it is further represented, that an immediate sale of the interest of said minor in said house and lot, would be greatly to her advantage, her mother and sister having already disposed of their interests:—Therefore,

Decree of sale of property authorized

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of Worcester county, sitting as a court of Equity, shall have full power and authority at the next term of said Court, after the passage of this act, upon the petition of the mother or next friend of the said minor, and on being satisfied by oral testimony or otherwise, that it will be to her interest and benefit, to decree the immediate sale of the interest of the said minor in the Real Estate mentioned in the preamble to this act, which decree and all the subsequent proceedings in the premises shall be according to the provisions of an act of Assembly passed at December session eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter one hundred and fifty-four, and the several supplements thereto.