

CHAPTER 24.

CHAP. 24.

An act to authorise William Krebs, Richard Linthicum and William Linthicum to build a bridge over Gwynn's falls, at or near where the present bridge stands, known by the name of the long bridge. Passed Jan. 27, 1835

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Authority granted That William Krebs, Richard and William Linthicum, their heirs and assigns or other legal representatives, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to build a bridge at their own proper cost and expense, over the middle branch of the Patapsco, called Gwynn's falls, and also from a point of land of James Carroll to a point of land on the opposite shore of Thomas H. Carroll, as near as possible to the present old bridge, the said bridge to be built on piles and of good and substantial materials, with a railing on each side thereof, and also to straighten and improve the road leading from said bridge to Sweetser's bridge on the Patapsco river. Direction where and how

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, Property vested That the property of said bridge, when built, shall be vested in William Krebs, Richard Linthicum and William Linthicum, their heirs and assigns or other legal representatives, who shall fix gates and demand and receive tolls for the passage of said bridge, not exceeding the following rates, viz:—for every foot passenger one cent, for every horse and rider three cents, for every carriage and four horses twelve and a half cents, for every carriage and two horses ten cents, for every carriage and one horse six and a quarter cents, for every horse in gear three cents, for every head of horse, mule or oxen two cents, for every head of sheep or swine, et cetera one cent, and the said bridge and the landing therefor, and the said road, it is hereby declared, shall, subject to the right of taking tolls as aforesaid, be forever Rate of tolls public highways. Public high way

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, May sell the bridge, &c. That William Krebs, Richard Linthicum and William Linthicum, their heirs and assigns or other legal representatives, shall have full power and authority, if they think proper, to sell