

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That each volunteer company that may be created, or organized under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, may select and establish the uniform of the said company and the field and staff officers of each volunteer regiment organized under said act may adopt and establish the uniform to be worn by them, any thing in the same act to which this is a supplement, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAP. 214.
Uniform of volunteers

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the sixtieth and ^{60th and 61st sec.} ~~supplement~~ ^{repealed} sections of the act, to which this is a supplement, be, and the same are hereby repealed, and the said act shall take effect and go into operation on and after the first day of April next, and the Governor of Maryland as commander in chief of the Militia of this State shall immediately advertise to have the ^{act} ^{Printed, &c.} to which this is a supplement, and this act printed in pamphlet form with marginal notes, upon the most reasonable terms, and when so printed, one copy thereof shall forthwith be sent by mail to each commissioned officer of the State.

CHAPTER 214.

An act for the benefit of the German Reformed Congregation of Frederick. Passed Mar. 25, 1835

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, ^{Payment of legacy authorised, &c.} That Lewis Ramsburgh, the executor of the last will and testament of Stephen Ramsburg, may and he is hereby authorised to pay, agreeably to the said last will and testament, unto the Vestry of the German Reformed Congregation of Frederick, the bequest of the sum of three hundred dollars, given to the said congregation by the said Stephen Ramsburg in and by his last will and testament, and that the said vestry of the said congregation, be and they are hereby authorised to take, have and receive, and to demand, sue for and recover, in any court of law or equity in this State, the said bequest of three hundred dollars, made