

CHAP. 216. to the said congregation by the said Stephen Ramsburg in and by his said testament and last will.

CHAPTER 215.

Passed Mar. 25, 1836 A supplement to an act, entitled, an act for building a bridge over North-East creek, at or near North-East, in Cecil county, on the main road leading from North-East to Charlestown, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty.

Clause repealed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act, to which this is a supplement, which requires the commissioners to fix the cite for the erection of a bridge over the North-East creek, on the main road leading from North-East to Charlestown, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Change of location

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That the surviving commissioners appointed in the original act, together with Jethro Johnson, who is hereby appointed commissioner, be and they are hereby authorised, if they should deem it expedient for the interest and convenience of the people of Cecil county, to change the location of said bridge to some point higher up on said creek, provided, it shall not be higher up on said stream than opposite the main street leading through the village of North-East.

CHAPTER 216.

Passed Mar. 25, 1836 An act for the protection of Oysters in the Little Choptank or Hudson river and its creeks, in Dorchester county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, that a most destructive practice is prevalent of catching oysters in the waters of Little Choptank or Hudson river and its creeks, in Dorchester county, solely for the purpose of manuring land, and the destruction of the oysters will be inevitable in said river