

CHAPTER 228.

CHAP. 228.

Passed Mar. 25, 1836. An act for the relief of James Dirickson and William Holland, and the Trustees of the Berlin Academy, in Worcester county.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that John Postly, late of Worcester county, did by his last will and testament devise and bequeath a certain portion of his estate, to be applied for the benefit and education of poor and necessitous young people in the hundreds of Buckingham, and Worcester hundreds, in Worcester county, and appointing certain persons and their successors, trustees for the management of the said fund, And whereas, it is further represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of James Dirickson and William Holland, the successors of said trustees, appointed under said will, that the objects and purposes of the said testator, John Postley, could be more effectually carried out by transferring and vesting the said trust and fund in the Trustees of Berlin Academy, in Worcester county,— Therefore:

a yment over directed

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said James Dirickson and William Holland, be, and they are hereby authorised, empowered and required to pay over and transfer to John R. Ritts, Isaac Covington, John S. Purnell and Henry Franklin, Jr. Trustees of Berlin Academy in Worcester county, all such sums of money, bonds, mortgages or evidences of debt as now are or may hereafter come into their hands, under and by virtue of the trust in the will of John Postly, late of Worcester county, deceased, to be by them and their successors applied at their discretion towards carrying out the objects, and design, mentioned in said last will and testament of John Postley, and to and for no other use, intent or purpose whatsoever; Provided nevertheless, that this law shall not be construed to affect the rights and interests of any one or more of the legal representatives and heirs at law of the said John Postley.