CHAPTER 230.

Passed Mar 12, 1835 An act for the relief of the Representatives of Richard Harwood, of Thomas, late of the City of Annapolis, deceased.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it is represented by the memorial of Edward L. Nicholson and others, that a bill has been lately filed in the Court of Chancery, by Thomas S. Alexander, against the representatives of Richard Harwood, of Thomas, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, for a sale or other administration of the estate of the said deceased, and that the comfort of the family of deceased, which appears to have been the great object of his care, would be greatly promoted, by a departure in some particulars from the dispositions made by his last will and testament, and especially in changing the location of the residence therein provided for his family; and whereas, it is doubted whether the Chancellor has the power by existing laws to make such disposition of the said estate, as may be necessary to advance the purpose aforesaid, for removing such doubt,

Changes

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in the progress of the aforesaid cause,
