

CHAP. 248. ty, or to the court of Chancery, appear that it will be for the advantage of all concerned in the premises, that such sale or the particular proposed exchange should be made, the children of said Gibson and wife being made parties to such application; and the court shall decree accordingly: and in case of sale authorised by said court, the same shall be made on such terms as the court shall prescribe, and be subject to all such rules and regulations as are usual in cases of sales in equity: and the court shall direct, and may from time to time change the investment of the proceeds of sale, and pass all such orders in relation thereto, as the interests of the parties may appear to require; and in case of any exchange, equality of estate shall not be required, but the benefits and advantages for the parties concerned in the said trusts shall alone be regarded.

---

CHAPTER 248.

Passed Mar. 29, 1836 A supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the promotion of Internal Improvement.

Commissioners

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Jones, Jun., William Krebs, and James W. McCulloh shall be, and they hereby are appointed commissioners, who shall have, use, and exercise and perform whatever power, function, or duty was by the act, entitled, an act for the promotion of Internal Improvement, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, conferred or imposed upon the board of public works, in relation to the Maryland Canal Company, and the estimate and plan of the Canal thereby authorised to be constructed, and shall also be, and they hereby are substituted for, and shall perform the duties of the commissioners by the said act directed to be appointed, and may proceed to perform those last mentioned duties so soon as they shall be satisfied of the practicability of excavating the said Canal.

Under act of 1825