

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the grand jury of Baltimore county shall, when they meet at each term of Baltimore county court, select by ballot five of their own number, who shall act as auditors, to examine the payments and vouchers of the treasurer of Baltimore county, and all other accounts appertaining to the board of commissioners of Baltimore county, and the said five members of the grand jury shall have power to send for persons and papers that they may deem necessary to aid them in their investigation, who shall testify on oath or affirmation, and the commissioners shall cause the result of their examination to be published and set up in the three most public places in each election district.

CHAP. 28.
Grand Jury shall appoint Auditors of accounts

Publication required

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to be elected or appointed by the provisions of this or the act to which this is a supplement, shall have, hold and exercise all the powers, rights, privileges and immunities that the commissioners of said county now do in conformity to the provisions of the said original act and the several supplements thereto, and they shall take and subscribe the same oath or affirmation before they enter upon the duties of their office, as is now required by the provision of the act to which this is a supplement.

Powers and duties of commissioner

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the act, entitled, an act to provide for electing the commissioners for Baltimore county and prescribing their duties, passed December session, eighteen hundred twenty-six, chapter two hundred and seventeen, and the several supplements and amendments thereto, as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealing clause