

CHAP. 269.

To examine and report

Levy court may allow

Also to commissioners

it shall be to examine said bridge, together with the vouchers of the contractor, and report to the levy court aforesaid, what shall seem to them to have been the cost of said bridge; and the said levy court, upon the receipt of such estimate, may allow to said contractor such additional sum of money as in their judgment shall seem to them reasonable and right, and may allow said commissioners such compensation for their services as shall seem to them reasonable, not exceeding two dollars per day, and the levy court aforesaid are hereby authorised and empowered to levy, upon the assessable property of said county, such sum or sums of money, and cause the same to be collected and paid over as other county charges are.

CHAPTER 268.

Passed Mar. 30, 1836 An act to authorise George W. Devecmon, the next friend of Thomas, Margaret, Ann, Daniel and Peter Devecmon, to bring into this State a negro slave for life.

May bring into State

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for George W. Devecmon, next friend of Thomas, Margaret, Ann, Daniel and Peter Devecmon, to bring into this State a negro girl named Fanny, a slave for life, the property of said minors; Provided, he shall in all respects comply with the requisitions of the act of Assembly, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter eighty-seven, and also the fourth section of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter three hundred and twenty-three.

CHAPTER 269.

Passed Mar 28, 1836 An act for the benefit of George Weems, and others.

WHEREAS, George Weems, Watchman and Bratt and James Harwood, have purchased of Robert Garner, of Anne Arundel county, a lot of ground in said