

CHAP 276. may be, and all and every other matter or thing to do therein, in as full and effectual manner as any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate within this State, in like cases may or can do or perform, and the said trustees or their successors, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to have, make, and use one common seal, with such device and inscription as they shall think proper, and therewith to pass and authenticate the certificates, acts and orders of the said corporation, and the same seal at their pleasure to break, alter and renew.

Power to appoint
teachers

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint professors, teachers and assistants for instructing the students and scholars of the said academy in such sciences and branches of education, as they shall think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and to make fundamental ordinances and regulations for the good government of the said academy, and the instruction of the youth aforesaid, and by these ordinances to appoint such number of their own body, not less than five, as they may think proper, to be a quorum or committee for transacting all general and necessary business of the said academy, and making temporary rules for the management thereof, and also by the said ordinances to delegate to the said professors and teachers, such power and authority as they shall think expedient for the standing government and discipline of the said academy, and the execution of the regulations thereof, and also by the said ordinances to make such regulations for the direction, recitation and examination of the said academy, and the students and scholars therein, as shall best promote the important object of the institution; Provided, always, that the said ordinances be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State.

Make ordinances

Meetings

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year, in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances, or by their own adjournments