

1835.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 280.

CHAP. 281.

Passed April 1, 1836 A supplement to an act, entitled, an act for the regulation and improvement of the Village of Denton, in Caroline County, and for other purposes.

Acts of commissioners

Confirmed

Stated day immaterial

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if at any time the commissioners elected in conformity with the above mentioned act, may have omitted to perform any duty imposed on them by the said act, on the day or at the period prescribed therein for the performance of any such duty, but nevertheless may have done the same on some other day or days, and in all other respects conformably to law, every such act or doing shall be and is hereby made and declared to be as valid and effectual as if it had been done at the time specified and fixed for their doing the same in the said law, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding; And it is hereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful, if at any time hereafter, the commissioners elected under said act shall omit or deem it inexpedient to perform any duty directed in the said act to be done by them on any stated day, it may and shall be lawful for the said commissioners to do or perform such duty, at any time within twenty days after, or next ensuing such stated day or period.

CHAPTER 281.

Passed April 1, 1836 An act relating to Drovers, driving Cattle and Sheep, in and through Caroline County.

WHEREAS, much trouble and loss has been experienced by different individuals, citizens of Caroline county, for the want of a law to compel drovers, driving cattle and sheep in and through said county, to have said cattle and sheep marked so as to enable any individual upon examining said drove, to take from said drove any unmarked cattle or sheep that they may discover in said drove:—Therefore,

Drover to mark
