Renunciation of tolls to be approved

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That this act and every part thereof shall be null and void, unless accepted and approved of at the meeting of the stockholders of said company, which is to be convened under the provisions of the preceding section, and such acceptance and approval is communicated by the President of said company, under the seal of the company, to the Governor and Council of the State of Maryland, and public notice thereof shall also be given by said company in some newspaper in the cities of Baltimore and Philadelphia.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be of any avail unless John Randel, junior, of Delaware, shall on or before the first of December next, file with the Treasurer of the Western Shore a renunciation of his right to attach the tolls of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company, on account of judgment rendered in his favor or which may hereafter be rendered in his favor against said company, which said renunciation shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State, and shall be a condition precedent to the enjoyment of the privilege conferred by this act.

CHAPTER 287.

Passed Mar. 25, 1836 An act to Incorporate the Western Bank of Baltimore.

Condition of incorporation

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the president and directors of the Mechanics' Saving Fund Society of Baltimore, shall on or before the first Monday of July next, pass and file with the Governor and Council of Maryland, a resolution authorised at a general meeting of its stockholders, and under the common seal of said society, declaring its acceptance of this act, and shall also file with said resolution, a statement of its affairs, shewing that it had fulfilled all of its obligations, and is free from debt: the estate of the said society shall
