CHAPTER 32.

Passed Jan. 29, 1836 A supplement to the act, entitled, an act to incorporate the town, called and known by the name of Vienna, in Dorchester county.

Power to tax dogs,
&c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of the town of Vienna are hereby empowered to assess and levy a reasonable tax on dogs and bitches belonging to, or kept by any of the inhabitants of said town, to be received and collected as other taxes are, under the original law to which this is a supplement, and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, may impose reasonable fines and penalties under the ordinances or by-laws of said town, for the restraining of dogs and bitches running at large within the limits thereof, and may authorise and compel the bailiff to kill any dog or bitch within the limits of said town, whose owner cannot be ascertained, or whose owner or keeper shall refuse to make the payment of taxes, fines and penalties imposed in virtue of this act.

Repair roads

SEC. 2 And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to keep the streets and public roads, lying within the limits of said town, in good repair, and the bailiff or other person appointed by them for that purpose shall have and possess, within the limits of said town, all the powers that overseers of public roads now have.

CHAPTER 33.
