

CHAPTER 49.

CHAP. 50.

Passed Feb. 4, 1886 An additional supplement to the act, entitled, an act to provide for the public instruction of youth in Primary Schools, throughout this State.

Residence of collectors of A, A. county

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the appointment of district collectors for primary schools, in Anne Arundel county, need not be limited to such persons as reside in the school districts, for which they are respectively appointed, provided they are residents of Anne Arundel county, and that the offices of such collectors, by their removal out of the county, shall thereby become vacant.

Acts of collectors. Sec. confirmed

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all appointments of such collectors, heretofore made, of persons not resident in the school districts for which they were respectively appointed collectors, shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if such collectors had resided and continued to reside in their respective school districts, and that in all courts of justice and elsewhere, they shall be held to be, and have been, from the time of their appointment, invested with the same powers, privileges, immunities and authorities, to all intents and purposes, and that all acts by them heretofore done or hereafter to be done in execution of, or in relation to their said offices, shall be as valid and effectual as if they had resided in the said several school districts, for which they were respectively appointed district collectors.

CHAPTER 50.

Passed Feb. 3, 1836 An act for the benefit of Thomas H. Clagett and Charles Gassaway, citizens of Loudon county, in the State of Virginia.

May remove slaves from farm to farm

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this law it shall and may be lawful for Dr. Thomas H. Clagett and Charles Gassaway, of Loudon county, in the State of Virginia,