

wagon, the breadth of whose wheels shall be more than seven inches, and not more than ten inches, or being of the breadth of seven inches shall roll more than ten inches, four cents for each horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon, the breadth of whose wheels shall be more than ten inches, and not exceeding twelve inches, or being ten inches, shall roll more than fifteen inches, three cents for each horse drawing the same, and for every cart or wagon, the breadth of whose wheels shall be more than twelve inches, two cents for each horse drawing the same.

CHAP. 322.

CHAPTER 322.

An act to incorporate the Clearspring Academy, in Washington County.

Passed April 2, 1836

WHEREAS, application has been made to this General Assembly of Maryland, for the passage of a law to incorporate the Clearspring Academy in Washington county:—Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a seminary of learning by the name of the Clearspring Academy, be established in Clearspring, Washington county, upon the following fundamental principles; first, the said Academy shall be founded and maintained forever upon the most liberal plan, for the benefit of youth of every religious denomination, who shall be freely admitted to equal privileges and advantages of education, without requiring or enforcing any religious or civil test, or urging their attendance upon any particular plan of religious worship or service, other than that they may have been educated in, or have the approbation and consent of their parents or guardians to attend; nor shall any preference be given in the choice of a principal or other professor, master or tutor in the said Academy, on account of his particular religious profession, but regard shall be had solely to his moral character, literary abilities, and other necessary qualifications to fill the place for which he shall be chosen. Second, that all

Seminary established

Fundamental principles

Religion