

than two of whom shall belong to the same denomination of christians; that the board of trustees, or any number thereof, shall be eligible to a re-election from time to time, and shall enter upon their duties on the Monday next ensuing such election, and that the board aforesaid, shall cause public notice to be given of such election ten days previous, and the same to be conducted by two justices of the peace of said county, and those seven having the greatest number of legal votes to be declared duly elected, and it shall be the duty of the said justices holding such election, to continue the polls open four hours, commencing at one o'clock P. M. on said day, and certify upon the books or journal of the trustees, the result of such election.

CHAP. 322.

Qualification

Notice

Rules of election

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That at all times, and forever hereafter, when any vacancy or vacancies shall happen in the said community of trustees, by the death, resignation, removal or the refusal of any one or more of them to attend the meetings of the board of trustees, for three successive meetings, without good cause, the remaining trustees or a majority of them, shall with all convenient speed, proceed to elect for the residue of his or their time of appointment, other sensible or discreet person or persons of the said county to be trustee or trustees, to supply such vacancy or vacancies; and in like manner shall all future vacancies be supplied by the trustees, when such vacancy or vacancies occur, and four of said board shall always be necessary to form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Vacancies

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the stock shall be divided into one thousand shares, at one dollar each share; and that the number of votes to which each stockholder shall be entitled, shall be according to the number of shares he or she shall hold in the proportion following, to wit: for one share, and not more than five, one vote for each share; for every two shares above five, and not exceeding ten, one vote; and one vote for every five shares above ten; and no share or shares shall confer a right of suffrage which shall not have been holden two calendar months previous to the day of election, and all transfers of stock to be made

Capital, 1000 shares

Votes rated