

CHAP. 340.

Like charges in Maryland and Pennsylvania

ing on its main rail road towards or from the rail road which shall be made from the line of the said State, and connected with the said main rail road, than shall at the same time be made or charged for the transportation of like persons or things, in the like direction, that is to say, eastwardly or westwardly, respectively when passing on the whole line or length of the rail road of the said company, so long as the charge for transporting like persons and things towards or from the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, along the whole line of the rail roads constructed by authority derived from the State of Pennsylvania, on which such persons or things may be transported, shall not be less per mile than is at the same time charged per mile for the transportation of like persons and things on so much of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, as is situated eastwardly of the aforementioned point of connection with the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, then the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company whenever the charge for transporting like persons and things, towards or from the said point of connection, shall be less on the rail roads constructed by authority derived from the State of Pennsylvania, may charge for transporting persons or things, passing to or from said connecting rail road, on that portion of its rail road situated westwardly of said point of connection, on which said transportation shall occur, such rates of tolls and transportation per mile, on such persons and things as shall enhance the aforesaid uniform charge for transporting such persons and things, per mile, westwardly or eastwardly, respectively, as much as the rates shall have been reduced per mile below said uniform rates for transporting persons and things when proceeding to or from the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, on the rail roads constructed by authority derived from the State of Pennsylvania, and on which such persons and things might pass either towards or from the rail road of the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company: provided, that the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company shall certify its assent to the stipulation and agreement aforementioned, to the Governor of this State, under its corporate

Certificate required