

CHAP. 341.

Notice

stockholders, for any purpose relative to the institution, giving at least four weeks' notice, in all the newspapers in the city or county of Frederick; and any number of stockholders not less than fifty, who together shall be proprietors of two thousand shares, may at any time apply to the said president and directors to call a general meeting of the stockholders, for any purpose relative to the institution, and if the president and directors shall refuse to call such meeting, the said number of stockholders, proprietors of not less than the aforesaid number of shares, shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders, giving at least sixty days' previous notice as aforesaid, and specifying in such notice, the object of such meeting, and it is hereby made the duty of the president and directors of said bank, at all times upon the application of not less than twenty stockholders, being holders of not less than one thousand shares, to give such stockholders a full list of the names of all the stockholders in said bank.

Stockholders may call

Duty of pres and directors to give a list

Bonds

ART. 12. Every cashier or treasurer, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall be required to give bond, with two or more surities to the satisfaction of the president and directors, in a sum not less than fifty thousand dollars, with a condition for his good behaviour, and every clerk, officer or servant of the bank, shall give bond in such penalty and with such security as the president and directors shall prescribe, with condition for his good behaviour.

Kind of business

ART. 13. That the corporation shall not deal or trade in any thing except bills of exchange, promissory notes and bullion, or in the sale of goods which shall be the produce of their lands, or of such goods and effects as shall have been bona fide pledged or mortgaged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts contracted in the course of its dealings or purchased at sales upon judgments, which shall have been obtained for such debts; provided however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the said corporation from making temporary investments of its funds, in purchase of the public debt of the United States or any one of the United States, as

Proviso