

to incorporate the George's Creek Mining Company, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter three hundred and twenty-seven, shall be, and hereby is authorised immediately on its organization to assume the corporate name of the George's Creek, Coal and Iron Company. CHAP. 382.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the business and concerns of said company shall be under the management of nine directors, who shall be stockholders and citizens of the United States, any three of whom with the president shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. Directors
Quorum

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That so much of the original act to which this is a supplement as requires the rail road or roads to be constructed by the said company to be terminated on the Potomac River, at or near the mouth of George's Creek, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, but nothing herein contained shall confer on the said company the power to interfere with the improvement of the Potomac River, above Cumberland, in the manner proposed by the act to incorporate the Union Company, passed at December Session in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-five. Point of termination

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the stock of the said company shall be transferrable on the books of the company, at such places and in such manner as its by-laws shall prescribe. Transfer

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the price or value of the lands which shall be subscribed as capital stock of said company, shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and said shares shall be taken to be personal property, and shall be voted on and transferable as other capital stock of said company. Lands—shares—personal estate

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That Charles Oliver of the city of Baltimore, shall be, and he is hereby authorised to subscribe the lands now owned by him in Allegany county, or any part thereof, as part of the capital stock of the said company, at a price or value which shall be estimated and fixed by the persons, at the time and in the manner provided by the original act for the valuation of the lands of the said John H. Alexander and Philip T. Tyson; provided, that at any Oliver's lands