CHAP. 393. against them, or any of them, or their heirs, executors or administrators, in any court of record in this State, by any creditor or creditors of the said corporation, and may be prosecuted to judgment and execution, any condition, covenant or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt the said corporation or the lands, tenements, goods, chattels and estate of the same, from being also liable for, and chargeable with the said excess; Provided always, that such of the said directors as may have been absent when the excess was created, or who may have dissented from the resolution or act whereby the same was created, may respectively exonerate themselves from being so liable, by forthwith giving notice of the fact, and of their absence or dissent, to the Governor of this State, and to the stockholders at a general meeting, which they shall have power to call for that purpose.

Exoneration

Banking forbid   SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to confer any banking privileges on the company aforesaid, nor the right to issue any note, in the nature of a bank note.

Limit 1860   SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall continue in force until the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and thereafter, until the same shall be repealed, as it may then be, either in whole or in part, at the pleasure of the legislature.

CHAPTER 393.

Passed June 4, 1836 An act to authorise the shutting up a certain Road, within the City of Baltimore.

Commissioners   SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor of the city of Baltimore, may appoint three persons as commissioners, whose duty

Authority to shut up old Joppa road it shall be to direct and cause to be shut up the part of the old Joppa Road, running between the grounds of the Maryland Hospital and Monument street, to the easternmost line of said grounds, and thenceforth the ground within the road so shut up shall belong to the