

CHAP. 67. going to deliver over to the jailor of Worcester county, any person on commitment in any case civil or criminal.

Fee for assistance
in commitment
Taxed

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That whenever any constable shall find it necessary to summon any person on commitment, he shall be required to summon a constable if there is one convenient, and whenever a constable or any other person shall be summoned for the purpose of so aiding and assisting, he shall be entitled to fifty cents as a compensation for his services, to be taxed in the costs against the defendant.

CHAPTER 67.

Passed Feb. 19, 1836 An act to prevent Swine and Geese going at large in the Village of Piscataway.

Seized and impounded

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for any constable of Piscataway, Prince George's county, to seize and impound any Geese or Swine he shall find going at large therein, and it shall be the duty of said constable so seizing and impounding, immediately to set up notices thereof at the most public places of said Village, for at least three days, and to insert the marks and descriptions of such geese or swine in said notices, and if the same are not reclaimed within five days after seizing and impounding, and the expences of impounding and keeping, to be allowed by a justice of the peace, paid, together with the sum of fifty cents for every hog, and twelve and a half cents for every goose, that the same shall be publickly sold by the said constable giving two days notice, in writing, of the time and place of such sale, and the proceeds of such sale, shall be first applied to the expense of impounding and keeping them, and the surplus, one half thereof shall be paid to the constable for his trouble, and the other half to be applied under the discretion of any magistrate of said Village to cleaning and repairing the streets of said Village.

Notice thereof

Costs

Sold

Proceeds applied