

schools in this State, is exempt from taxation, by virtue of the act of Assembly, passed on the twentieth of January, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, yet the literary and charitable institutions, above named, not coming within the denomination of county schools in the said act mentioned, and being thus annually required to refund by taxation, a considerable portion of the annual donation from the State.—Therefore;

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the buildings in which Saint John's benevolent school and orphan asylum and Saint John's literary institution, together with the lot or parcel of land, upon which the said buildings are erected, as well as the library, philosophical apparatus and other personal property contained in said buildings, be and the same are exempted from taxation in like manner, and as fully as the respective colleges and county schools in this State; provided, that that exemption shall continue and be in force so long as the said property shall be held and used in the manner and for the purposes above specified, and no longer.

No. 72.

Resolution in favor of Church Hill Academy, in Passed Mar. 26, 1833
Queen Ann's County.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Academy at Church Hill, in Queen Ann's county, shall hereafter be entitled to draw the sum of two hundred dollars, out of the donation heretofore given to the Academy at Centreville in said county, and the Treasurer of the Western Shore, is hereby directed and required to pay on the first day of April next, and on the same day annually thereafter, to the trustees of Church Hill Academy or their order, for the use of said Academy, the said sum of two hundred dollars.