No. 91.

Passed April 2

Resolution relative to Abingdon, Cokesbury and Darlington Academics, in Harford county.

WHEREAS, it appears to the General Assembly of Maryland, that the trustees of the Abingdon Academy, in Harford county, have not applied the donation of three hundred dollars, granted to said Academy, by resolution, number twenty-nine, of December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty, according to the intention of the General Assembly in making said donation, but on the contrary have in a great measure defeated the intention of the General Assembly, as expressed in said resolution, and the objects which it sought to accomplish by said donation, in part by withholding one hundred dollars per annum, allowed by said resolution for the purposes of tuition, and in part by applying it for their own benefit, in addition to the one hundred dollars allowed by said resolution, in discharging the debts or the interest on the debts
