

year eighteen hundred and thirty-four; when he formally declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, but died in the following year before this intention could be legally accomplished; And whereas, the said Thomas Gregg, as purchaser for a full and valuable consideration, became entitled as tenant, in common with a certain Andrew Gregg, to a lot of ground being leasehold property, situate on Eutaw street in the city of Baltimore, by a deed of assignment, bearing date the third day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-six, from a certain Peter Rescanier, executor of the last will and testament of Martha P. G. Mantaliber, and which is recorded among the land records of Baltimore County, in Liber W. G. No. one hundred and eighty one, folio thirty nine; And whereas the said John Gregg, James Gregg, and Andrew A. Gregg cannot receive and hold the said property without the act of this General Assembly: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, May hold or dispose of property
That the heirs and personal representatives of the said Thomas Gregg, be hereby authorised and empowered to take, hold and dispose of the above described lot of ground, in the same manner, as if the said Thomas Gregg had been a naturalized citizen of the United States, at the time when the said conveyance was made to him.

CHAPTER 72.

An additional supplement to the act, entitled, an act for erecting a bridge over Choptank river, at Dover Ferry, passed December session, eighteen hundred and ten, chapter one hundred and twelve. Passed Feb. 18, 1836

Preamble
WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly by the memorial of the stockholders of the Choptank Bridge Company, in general meeting assembled at Easton, on Friday the twenty-seventh November, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, that the income of the bridge has become much lessened, and that no dividend has been made among the stockholders since the year
