

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

	Chap.	Sec.
BALTIMORE CITY, The 10th, 11th and 12th section of the act of 1832, chapter 269, repealed	76	3
For shutting up parts of St. Paul's street, and of Lovegrove's Alley, in, (if the mayor and city council approve)	81
The name of Goodloe street, in, changed to that of West Lombard street,	86
To authorise the widening of Carpenter's Alley, in,	91
The name of Carpenter's Alley changed to that of Lemon street	"	3
To continue in force for one year, the act of 1832, chapter 214, for increasing the width of a part of Light street, in,	94
For the extension of Caroline street in,	96
Proposing to alter the constitution of the State as relates to the Delegation from,—and providing for the election in future of four delegates,	98
To authorise, to subscribe to the capital stock of the Balt. & Ohio Rail Road,	127
May subscribe any amount not exceeding three millions of dollars over and above what they have subscribed,	"	1
May for that purpose borrow any amount necessary,	"	2
May levy and collect for the payment of principal or interest of such loan, any sum they find necessary,	"	3
May appoint an additional director of the Rail Road company, for every 5,000 shares of stock subscribed for under this act,	"	4
The authorities of, restricted from imposing any tax upon bank franchises, &c.	142	2
Relating to Chatsworth street, in, authorising the mayor and city council by ordinance to open and pave said street between Saratoga and Lexington streets,	170
To provide indemnity to the sufferers by certain riots, in,	184
Method of ascertaining the damages,	"	1