

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

BANKS,

	Chap	Sec
The city of Baltimore restricted to the same extent from imposing tax on,	142	2
The act of 1821, ch. 121, explained as intended to limit taxation only upon the franchises of the bank,	"	3
A further supplement to the act of 1812, ch. 79, to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road leading from Cumberland, and for the extension of the charters of the several banks in this State, &c.	186
See Turnpike Roads ,
Supplement to the act incorporating the stockholders of the Franklin Bank, of Baltimore; authorising an augmentation of capital, &c.	277
Incorporating the Western Bank of Baltimore, and substituting the same for the Mechanics Savings Fund Society, of Baltimore;	287
To incorporate the Commercial Bank, of Baltimore,	289
The Fell's Point Savings Institution, converted into the Eastern Bank of Baltimore,	298
The Chesapeake Bank incorporated, the Baltimore Savings Institution authorised to be converted into said,	313
The Citizens Bank of Baltimore, incorporated,	314
The Farmers and Planters Bank of Baltimore, incorporated,	315
The Real Estate Bank of Baltimore, incorporated,	317
The Farmers' and Millers' Bank, of Hagerstown, incorporated,	318
The Hamilton Bank, incorporated,	320
The Real Estate Bank of Frederick county, incorporated,	341
Supplement to the act incorporating the Real Estate Bank of Frederick county, authorising organization when 2000 shares		