CHAPTER 75.

An act for the speedy trial of Misdemeanors in the City of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 18, 1835

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, that owing to the great increase of business in Baltimore City Court, the Judges thereof have found it expedient to hold weekly sessions during the intervals of their regular terms, for hearing cases that do not require the intervention of a Grand Jury, and that it would be a saving of much expense to the city, as well as afford relief to persons charged with the commission of small offences, and also to witnesses who are mostly of the poorer class of the community, if said persons so charged had the option of having their cases
