

COURTS OF EQUITY,	May take bonds, (where parties are numerous &c.) in the name of the State as obligee, which may be sued as public bonds may, copies whereof shall be accredited &c.	320	7
	In cases of injunction, may order testimony to be taken in behalf of all the parties &c. which shall be returnable by the day the motion to dissolve said injunction shall be heard,	"	8
	The powers of, to decree sale of infants estates, shall extend, to all cases of trust for infants, either for the application of rents, profits or income- &c. and to any chattels real, where if the property were freehold, the sale might be decreed,	"	9
	Powers of, to decree leases of ground in the city of Baltimore, shall extend to all cases of trust of or concerning ground in said city,	"	"
COURT HOUSE—	To provide for certain alterations in the, of Washington county,	25
	To provide for building a, in Montgomery county,	164
	Relative to recording again such deeds &c., the records of which were destroyed by burning the, in Worcester county,	279
COX, JOHN	See Land ,	141
COXES TOWN—	Place of holding a polls fixed at, in Baltimore county,	209	3
COYLE, CATHERINE—	Divorced, a vinculo matrimonii, from her husband Terrence Coyle,	344
CRIER OF COURT—	Making additional provision for the, of Harford county, placing his compensation upon the same basis as that of the Baliffs of said court,	2
	See Harford county ,
CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS,	Concerning,	200	