

CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS,

tence obtain any money, chattel or valuable security, with intent to defraud, &c. deemed guilty of misdemeanor and punishable by fine, imprisonment, or penitentiary, not less than two nor more than ten years,	319	1
If upon trial it proves to have been larceny or robbery, not therefore to be acquitted of such misdemeanor,	”	”
Shall not be afterwards liable for larceny or robbery for the same facts,	”	”
The particular false pretences intended to be relied upon, must be set forth in the indictment, and a copy furnished to the accused before trial, with names of witnesses, &c.		2
A mere promise of future payment, though not intended to be performed, not to authorise conviction under this act,	”	”
The court authorised to award restitution of goods, &c. so obtained upon conviction of the accused,	”	3
No bona fide holder however, shall be obliged under this act to deliver up the same,	”	”
Persons guilty of altering entries of judgments in a docket of the district courts, shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and punishable accordingly,	201	7
Further supplement to the act of 1831, ch. 323, relating to Free Negroes and Slaves,	325
Circulating or in any way assisting to circulate among the inhabitants of this State, any pictorial representation, or any pamphlet, newspaper, hand bill, or other paper printed or written, having a tendency to create discontent among, and stir up to insurrection, the people of color of this State deemed a high offence against this State,	”	1