

	Chap.	Sec.
RAIL ROADS —The George's Creek mining company authorised to construct, to connect their mines with George's creek, or the Potomac river, &c.	328	1
The Cumberland coal mining company empowered to construct, to connect their mines with the Potomac, &c.	334	9, 10
See chapter	335	1, 2
Supplement to the act incorporating the Delaware and Maryland rail road company, respecting bridges, &c.	336
The Eastern Shore rail road company incorporated,	338
Not to be constructed under authority of the act to ascertain the right of citizens of this state to private roads and ways,	362
Right reserved in relation to, in chartering the Union Company,	364	2
The Clifton coal company, authorised to construct a, from their mines to the basin of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal at Cumberland, with all the privileges incident to, but restricted in passing the gorge of the mountains,	365	6
Authorising a change of the location of the Baltimore and Susquehanna, between Baltimore, Timonium and Owen's mills,	371
Further supplement to the act incorporating the Eastern Shore R. R. directing the location within the state,	372
Supplement to the act incorporating the Eastern Shore,—naming additional commissioners, authorising organization of company, relating to tolls, &c.	374
RANDEL, JOHN, Jr. —See chap. 286, sec. 3, &c.
See Chesapeake and Delaware Canal ,	379
RAMSBURG STEPHEN. —Executor of, authorised to pay over a legacy bequeathed by, to the German Reformed Congregation, of Frederick,	214	