

CHAP. 92.

Meeting to organize

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That after the expiration of the six days for which the books shall have been first opened, if four thousand shares of the said capital stock shall have been subscribed, or if not as soon thereafter as the same shall have been subscribed if within three years after the first opening of the books, the said commissioners or any three of them, shall give thirty days public notice of the time and place of holding an election for a President and five Directors of the said company, and that in said election, stockholders may vote in person or by proxy, according to the number of shares held, to be entitled to one vote for each share, and the commissioners named in the original act, or any three or more of them, shall be judges of the said first election of Directors, and any stockholder shall be eligible as President or Director, and the said commissioners shall deliver over the original subscriptions to the President and Directors immediately after their election.

May construct Rail Road

Location

Provisions

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That as soon as the Allegany Coal Mine Rail Road Company shall be organized, according to the several provisions of the original and this supplemental act, the President and Directors of said company, or a majority of them may construct and repair a Rail Road, from some such suitable point as may be determined on by them, on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, or on the Basin, which may be formed by said Canal company, at or near the town of Cumberland, to the respective Coal Mines up the valley of Wills' Creek, to the junction of Braddocks' run, thence up the valley of Braddocks' run, with lateral ways to the different coal mines, in the discretion of the President and Directors, or a majority of them as may seem most expedient; provided, that nothing in the original or this supplemental act, shall be so construed as to prohibit any individual or individuals from connecting any lateral way with the Allegany Coal Mine Rail Road, or any of its branches where such connection can be made without injury to the road; provided the President and Directors do not construct such lateral way or ways, on the request of the owners of the lands on which such lat-