50. The form and arrangement of the ballots shall be as follows: All ballots shall contain the names of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been certified to and filed according to the provisions of this Article, and not withdrawn in accordance herewith. The names of candidates for every office shall, except in the case of candidates for Presidential electors, be arranged alphabetically according to their surname under the designation of the office. To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, and immediately to the left of the square opposite the name of the candidate, and in line therewith, shall be added the designation of the party or principle which the candidate represents, as is duly contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination papers. To the name of each candidate for State office or candidate for Congress shall be added the name of the county or city in which the candidate resides. Ballots shall be so printed as to give to each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) in a square at the right of the name of each candidate and at the right of each question his choice of candidates and his answer to such question. If a candidate is named for the same office on two or more certificates of nomination his name shall be printed on the ballot but once, and to the right of the name of said candidate shall be added the names of each of the parties or principles which the candidate represents. When the name of a political party is given in connection with the name of a candidate nominated, as provided in Section 38 of this Article, it shall be stated on the ballot to the right of the name of the candidate; but if there shall have been any nomination for the same office by a convention or primary election claiming the same party name, duly certified as hereinbefore provided, the word "Independent" shall precede the party name, if the candidate is nominated under the provisions of the said Sec-
