

process in any court of law of competent jurisdiction, and all penalties enforced by indictment.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the Superintendent of the Census may authorize the expenditure of the necessary sums for traveling expenses for the officers and employees of the Census Office, and the incidental expenses essential to carrying out this Act, as hereinbefore provided for, and not otherwise, including the rental of sufficient quarters in the city of Baltimore; and he is authorized to print such blanks, circulars, envelopes and other items as may be necessary, and he shall audit the claims for compensation of all the enumerators and other subordinate employes, which shall be verified by affidavit, and pay the same, making requisition upon the Comptroller for the necessary funds, as hereinafter provided.

Superintendent authorizes expenditures.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That when the returns shall be received from the enumerators, it shall be the duty of the Superintendent of the Census to examine and scrutinize the same, and in the event of discrepancies or deficiencies appearing in the returns from any precinct, to use all diligence in causing the same to be corrected or supplied; and when all returns shall have been received he shall compile the same and forward to the Governor the completed and tabulated returns from each county of the State and the wards of Baltimore City, giving the number of actual bona fide residents in each election precinct, and the number of male inhabitants above twenty-one years of age, and whether registered as voters or not, in each precinct of the several counties of the State and the wards of the City of Baltimore; said final and complete tabulated returns to be delivered to the Governor on or before the twentieth day of July, nineteen hundred and one, and to contain a complete enumeration of all the people of the State.

Further duties of Superintendent.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the enumeration of population so made and returned to the Governor, as hereinbefore provided, shall be the basis upon which the Governor shall arrange the apportionment of representation in the House of Delegates of the several counties and the City of Baltimore, as required by Section 5 of Article 3 of the Constitution; and having made such apportionment the Governor shall immediately declare, by proclamation, the number of Delegates to which each of the several counties and the City of Baltimore shall be entitled in the House of Delegates of the next General Assembly of Maryland.

Apportionment of representatives in House.