

venience of the voters to subdivide any of said election districts or election precincts having a number of voters in excess of six hundred, they are hereby empowered and authorized to make such subdivisions and to establish the boundaries of such subdivisions in such way as to facilitate and expedite the casting of their ballots by the voters thereof, either by a designation of an entirely new and different polling place, or by providing for two separate polling places at or near the former polling place. Whenever, in the exercise of the discretion conferred upon the several Boards of Supervisors of Elections by this section they shall subdivide any election district or election precinct, they shall appoint officers of registration and judges and clerks of election therefor, as in this Article provided, who shall have all the powers, perform all the duties, be subject to all the responsibilities and be liable to all the penalties prescribed in this Article for officers of registration, judges and clerks of election. All the members of the Boards of Supervisors for the several counties whenever any such district or precinct is divided, as herein provided, sign their names to the books which contain the names copied from the original books for such new district or precinct in the hands of said Supervisors, and shall duly certify that said new books contain all the names of the persons entitled to vote in such newly established district or precinct, such said certificate shall appear on the blank line next following the last name in each letter of the alphabetical list of names in the new books so transcribed, and such said certificates shall be attested by the clerk to the respective Boards of Supervisors. Said Boards of Supervisors shall furnish to the officers of registration and judges of election, appointed by them for such new additional voting precincts, full and complete sets of registry books containing the names of all voters already registered, duly and properly arranged for such additional voting precincts and for the entering upon such registry books persons entitled to be newly registered thereon; the cost of such subdivision and preparation of proper registry books shall be paid by the County Commissioners of the counties in which such subdivisions shall be made upon proper requisition and vouchers presented by the Boards of Supervisors of Elections.

The boundaries of said additional precincts established under this section shall be made known by advertisement in two newspapers in said counties once a week for three successive weeks before the first day of September in each year in which such subdivision is made; said newspapers to be designated as provided in other cases under this Article where
