

running along the entire width of said coupon. Upon said coupon shall be printed the words "Voter's name," with a line drawn thereunder, for writing said name, and under the said line the words "Number of Voter," followed by a blank space for the insertion of number. Before distributing, said ballots shall be so folded in marked creases that no part of the marks or printing thereon, excepting that upon the back and outside, and that upon the detachable stub or coupon, shall be visible, and so that the folded ballots shall be of uniform width and length, and of proper width, to be deposited in the ballot boxes. All ballots, when printed, shall be folded as above provided, and fastened together in convenient numbers in packages, books or blocks, so that each ballot may be detached and removed separately. The said Board of Supervisors of Elections shall, four days at least prior to the day of any election in said city, cause to be conspicuously and securely posted in one or more public places in each voting precinct of said city, accurate sample copies of the ballots to be used in such precinct at the then approaching election; such sample copies shall be printed on light card board or heavy-sized paper of considerably magnified dimensions, and one of them at least shall be placed upon the exterior of each building in which the polls will be held, so that the same can be readily seen and examined by persons passing on the street or road.

270CCC. At every election each qualified voter shall be entitled to receive one official ballot. The person applying therefor to the judge of election holding the ballots shall give his name and residence, and the said judge shall repeat the same in a loud and distinct voice, and if such name be found upon the register by the judges having the custody thereof they shall repeat the said name and the voter shall be allowed to enter the space enclosed by the guardrail, and the judge holding the ballots, having first written in ink the voter's name and number upon the coupon attached to one of them, shall deliver to said voter the ballot, after having likewise written in ink his own name or initials upon the back thereof, and the two clerks of election shall at the same time enter the name of the voter upon the poll-book. Upon receipt of his ballot the voter shall forthwith and without leaving the enclosed space retire alone to one of the booths or compartments and prepare his ballot by marking with an indelible pencil after the name of every person or persons for whom he intends to vote, and to the right thereof, in the blank space
