

fully read and examine the same; but the judges shall not allow any ballot to be taken from their hands. As the ballots are counted they shall be strung upon a strong twine.

Judge not permitted to give ballot out of hand.

27oAAAAA. At least fifteen days before every city election the city attorney shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of the voters of such election as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them and as to obtaining new ballots in place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall, in his opinion, be necessary and proper; said instructions shall be furnished by the Board of Supervisors of Elections, who shall respectively cause the same, together with copies of Sections 27oCCC, 27oDDD and 27oEEE of this Article, to be printed in large, clear type on separate cards, to be called "Cards of Instruction," and said Board of Supervisors shall furnish twelve of the same with ballots for use in each election precinct. They shall also cause to be printed on light cardboard or heavy-sized paper ten or more copies of the form of the ballots provided for each voting place at each election therein, of a considerably magnified size, which shall be called "Specimen Ballots," and the same shall be furnished with the other ballots prepared for each voting place. On the morning of said election said Supervisors of Elections shall cause to be conspicuously posted in each polling place said cards of instruction and largely magnified specimen ballots, and one of said cards of instruction shall be affixed in each booth or voting compartment, and the said specimen ballots shall be conspicuously displayed in said polling rooms and on the outside of the buildings wherein said voting shall take place. Not less than three of said cards and three of said specimen ballots shall be posted outside of the guardrails, and not less than three of each of same shall be securely and conspicuously posted on the outside of the building in which the polls are held, before the balloting begins, in such position that the same may be easily examined by the public.
