

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

January 8th, 1857.

To the Governor of Maryland:

In obedience to the requirements of the Act of Assembly, of 1852, Chapter 56, Section 1, the Comptroller of the Treasury Department respectfully submits the following Report:

THE OPERATIONS OF THE TREASURY FOR THE FISCAL YEAR.

STATEMENT No. 1, appended to this Report, upon examination, will show the aggregate receipts into the Treasury for the fiscal year, ended the 30th of September, 1856, to have been $1,230,372, which added to $592,922.03, (the balance in the Treasury on the 30th of September, 1855) makes the total amount in the Treasury, during the fiscal year, $1,823,294.03.

A comparison of these receipts with those of the preceding fiscal year, will show a difference in favor of the aggregate receipts for the fiscal year ending 30th September, 1856, of $29,609.42.

It will also appear that the receipts from revenue which accrued during the year just closed, exceed those of the preceding fiscal year by the sum of $54,465.01, notwithstanding the repeal of the Stamp Tax at the last session of the General Assembly, and the reduction of the Direct Tax from fifteen cents to ten cents on $100.

STATEMENT No. 2, will exhibit the disbursements from the Treasury in the fiscal year, ended the 30th of September, 1856, which were $1,187,421.28, and will, also, show the balance in the Treasury, as of the 30th of September, 1856, to have been $635,872.75, subject to the payment of charges therein stated, leaving a nett balance applicable to future demands of $353,347.21.
