

STATEMENT H.

Showing the entire Receipts into the Treasury on account of the Oyster Fund, since the Passage of the First Oyster Law of 1864.

33
*

Receipts into the Treasury during the Fiscal Year of 1865, from the different accounts, viz:
Dredging Licenses.....	12,111 20
Tongs Licenses.....	1,919 00
		14,030 20
During the Fiscal Year of 1866, viz :
Dredging Licenses.....	48,463 22
Tongs Licenses.....	8,098 75
		56,561 97
During the Fiscal Year of 1867, viz :
Dredging Licenses.....	22,515 29
Tongs Licenses.....	6,183 44
Oyster Fines.....	79 92
		28,778 65
During the Fiscal Year of 1868, viz :
Dredging Licenses.....	32,535 90
Tongs Licenses.....	11,669 20
Oyster Fines.....	676 27
Oyster Measurers' Licenses.....	445 50
		45,326 87
Total Receipts.....		144,697 69	$144,697 69
There was expended on account of the Oyster Fund during the Fiscal Year of 1867, for sundry accounts....
	80 85
		80 85
And during the Fiscal Year of 1868, the following disbursements, viz :
Amount paid Expedition.....	1,517 80
So much on account of constructing and arming steamer.....	16,697 15
Salaries and expenses of Oyster Police Force.....	2,964 96
Amount refunded to F. J. Henry.....	142 00
		21,321 91	21,402 76
Balance to the credit of the Oyster Fund as of September 30th, 1868.....
			$123,294 93