

REPORT
OF THE
Comptroller of the Treasury.

---

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

Annapolis, Dec. 20th, 1872.

To His Excellency,

William Pinkney Whyte, Governor of Maryland.

In obedience to the Constitution and Laws of the State, I respectfully submit the following Report of the financial condition of the Treasury Department at the close of the fiscal year ended 30th September, 1872.

RECEIPTS.

The total receipts into the Treasury, from all sources during the fiscal year, amounted to $2,237,578.26, which, added to the balance in the Treasury, 30th September, 1871, viz: $452,246.90, make the total amount in the Treasury during the fiscal year 1872, $2,689,825.16. Of this amount, the sum of $336,208.87 was derived from the sale of the stock of the Maryland Hospital Loan, made in pursuance of the Act of Assembly of January Session 1872, Chapter 236, and the sum of $25,000.00 was derived from the sale of the balance of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum Loan, authorized by Act of January Session 1870, Chapter 422, leaving the amount derived to the Treasury from ordinary sources of revenue during the fiscal year ending 30th September, 1872, $1,876,369.39. This sum is larger than the amount received from the same sources, during the fiscal year 1871, by the sum of $50,338.67, and larger than the receipts from same sources during the fiscal year 1870, by the sum of $3,427.27.
