

REPORT

OF THE

Comptroller of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

Annapolis, January 6th, 1875.

To His Excellency, James B. Groome,

Governor of Maryland:

It becomes my duty under the laws of the State, to transmit to your Excellency a report of the operations of the Treasury Department, for the fiscal year, ended 30th September, 1874.

RECEIPTS.

The total receipts into the Treasury from all sources during the fiscal year, amounted to $2,357,202.72, and the balance in the Treasury 30th September, 1873, was $484,810.22, making the aggregate amount in the Treasury during the fiscal year $2,842,012.94.

Of the amount received during the fiscal year, $125,000.00 was on account of the sale of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum Loan issued in pursuance of chapter 42, of 1874, and the sum of $268,697.50 was received from the sale of $261,000 Maryland Defence Loan, issued by the Treasurer, under the Act of 1868, chapter 235, leaving the receipts from ordinary sources during the fiscal year 1874, to be $1,963,605.22. This sum is larger than the amount received from the same sources in 1873, by the sum of $149,256.26, and exceeds the amount received from ordinary sources, in any year since the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company ceased paying the one-fifth of its receipts from passengers on the Washington Branch.
