

REPORT

—OF THE—

Comptroller of the Treasury

—OF THE—

STATE OF MARYLAND

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

ANNAPOLIS, January 7, 1903.

To His Excellency,

John Walter Smith,

Governor of Maryland:

It becomes my duty and pleasure, in obedience to the provisions of Section 9 of Article 19 of the Code of Public General Laws, to submit to Your Excellency my annual report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 1902.

RECEIPTS.

The amount received into the Treasury proper, from all sources during the fiscal year, was $3,631,259.48, as will be seen by reference to statement "A." This, together with the amount of $972,412.91 in the Treasury proper September 30, 1901, and $9,853.73 to the credit of the Fund's account, as will be seen in statement "F," will make the total $4,613,526.12, including such balance.

While said statement "A" shows the actual receipts during the year to be $3,631,259.48, there should be deducted from this amount, in order to ascertain the ordinary revenue of the State, the sum of $400,000, on account of the "State Loan of 1902," since bonds for this loan were issued to this extent, and the moneys arising from such sale, although taken by the State, came into the Treasury. It may be proper to add just here, that the last Legislature, by Chapter 200, authorized a new State Bond issue of
