

Murray Vandiver, State Treasurer, and to those with whom I have been immediately associated in my own office and to others with whom I have during this period been brought into official intercourse. A recollection of these valued associations will always be a matter of genuine pleasure to me.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSHUA W. HERING,
Comptroller.