

REPORT
—OF THE—
Comptroller of the Treasury
—OF THE—
STATE OF MARYLAND

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

ANNAPOLIS, January 3, 1907.

To His Excellency, Edwin Warfield, Governor of Maryland:

In pursuance of the provisions of Section 9 of Article 19 of the Code of Public General Laws, it becomes my pleasure to submit to you my annual report for the fiscal year ended September 30th, 1906, exhibiting in detail a statement of the funds and the revenues of the State.

RECEIPTS.

The entire gross receipts during the fiscal year, exclusive of those of the fund's accounts, as shown in statement "A," were $4,529,460.07, to which must be added, however, the balance on hand September 30th, 1905, of $1,516,881.78, aggregating $6,046,341.85, the largest amount ever received during a like period.

While the receipts are given above as $4,529,460.07, yet this does not represent the ordinary receipts of the State Treasury, for certain items going to make up this aggregate are extraordinary ones, to wit:

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co., Dividend on Stock.....	$ 33,000.00
Public Buildings Loan.....	141,000.00
State Tobacco Warehouses,	251,055.02
Total	$425,055.02
