

where we found the proper license had been secured. Every county in the State has been visited by an inspector, with the exception of Charles County, and there still remains a portion of Baltimore City to be inspected. Allegany County has been visited twice by an inspector during the fiscal year of 1925-6.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK P. BRATTEN,
Chief Inspector State Licenses.