

The Data Entry Section of the Annapolis Data Center enters information from state tax forms and other documents into the main computers, helping to ensure swift processing of 4.7 million state tax returns and over $465 million in refund checks for the majority of taxpayers.